SPECIAL COMMODITIES BRANCH MEMORANDUM NO. 3

Supplement B

To: All Divisions and Sections, Special Commodities Branch
From: H. C. Albin, Chief, Special Commodities Branch
Subject: Documentation of Direct Purchase Negotiations

Unusual circumstances surrounding the supply picture of certain commodities assigned to this Branch, may warrant negotiation of purchases by telephonic communication. It is imperative that these transactions be properly documented. Accordingly the instructions outlined below will be followed in all instances in which a purchase representative of this Branch enters into a contract with a vendor by direct or telephonic negotiation:

1. Prior to completion of negotiation the Purchase Representative will prepare a memorandum to the Chief of the Branch setting forth:
 - a. Commodity and quantity involved.
 - b. Reason this purchase method is being used.
 - c. Objective of the Procurement operation.
2. The Purchase Representative shall immediately prepare five (5) copies of a contract form. (Specimen copies of acceptable forms attached). A letter to the offerer shall be prepared immediately and forwarded to the Announcement and Contract Section together with the five copies of the contract form, signed by the Division Chief.
3. When the offerer has signed and returned the original and four (4) copies of the contract form, the Purchase Representative will indicate acceptance by signing in the appropriate space and proceed as set forth in Special Commodities Branch Memorandum No. 3, Paragraph C.
